

Ld. Wellerley to H. R. W.

17618

Foreign Office Feb 22^d 1811

Lord Wellerley has the honor to inclose to Your Royal Highness, an intercepted letter, which has already been submitted to Your Royal Highness's notice;

The letters - J. J. - are supposed to mean - Jose Lampago, a person lately exiled from Lisbon to England. Mr Stuart & Admiral Berkeley interceded in favor of this person at Lisbon, having every reason to believe that he had been unjustly suspected.

The rumours stated by Mad^e de Pancas may

Charles -
Capt. Sir
later Baron
Stuart de Rothemann

may afford an instance of the spirit of political intrigue, which distinguishes her family.
