

23 Feb 1811
P<sup>m</sup> Mr Peel.

to Col. J. Mahan.

17619

Mr. Peel presents his compliments to Colonel Mr. Mahan and begs leave to return to him an Instrument in which the signature of His Royal Highness's initials has been omitted.

Mr. Peel will be obliged to Col Mr. Mahan if he will have the goodness to submit it again to His Royal Highness in order that the omission may be supplied at the end of the Instrument

Mr. Peel ventures to be thus pressing

as the West India Mail is to be dispatched today

Downing St.

23 Feb. 1811

4 AM