Foreign Office Feb 24th 1811

Lord Wellesley presents his humble duty to Your Royal Highness & requests Your Royal Highness's gracious commands with respect to the Funeral of the Duke of Albuquerque, on which subject he had the honor of submitting several considerations to Your Royal Highness at his last audience.

If it should be convenient to Your Royal Highness to direct any person to

to communicate to Lord Wellesley Your Royal Highness's pleasure on this point, he will be ready at all times to receive Your Royal Highness's orders.

The Funeral is appointed for Saturday next, & it is proposed, with Your Royal Highness's gracious permission that the remains of the Duke of Alburquerque should be deposited in Westminster Abbey until the wishes of the Duke's family & of the Spanish Government can be ascertained.
