Mr. Perceval presents his humble duty to your Royal Highness & has the satisfaction to inform your Royal Highness that the ward's motion to enquire into the Proceedings had upon the 1st of the 21st of the was resolved upon a Division - of 91 to 1 - Colonel John Sayer, the Colonel of the Regiment being the only member who voted for the Enquiry - of Mr. Wardle & Mr. Francis Burdett being the others - Mr. Wardle was shown in the debate by Mr. John Sayer himself who vindicated his conduct with great

That & few, ~~Mr~~ Warriner later followed Mr Lupton, and in a most excellent speech, comprehending the whole case, & exposing all the misrepresentations of Mr Wardle's statement, with an ability & eloquence that can hardly be exceeded, gave the utmost satisfaction to the House upon every part of the proceeding.

Mr Francis Burdett spoke next - Lord Mansfield, the commanding officer of the district followed him - Mr Deekha's name next - Mr Perceval thought it necessary to show how exactly the Commanders in Chief had behaved upon this business, and therefore read the correspondence which had passed between him & Mr
