Sir

Having now completed and delivered to you the peerage for which you are a subscriber for which there is due to us the sum of £. 26.5.0. — we trust you will excuse our requesting that the same may be paid into the hands of Mess^{rs} Ramsbottom, Newmans, Ramsbottom & Co Bankers Lombard Street on or before the 24th March. The very large sums we have expended on this work makes the payment of the money by the above date of the greatest importance to us, or we would not have taken the liberty of urging an application which we are obliged most earnestly to request your compliance with and which will confer the greatest obligation on

Sir

Your most obedient and humble servants
