

1 April 1811
Marq. Wellesley

Count Gortals
affairs of Russia

17852

April 1st 1811

17822-3 Lord Wellesley has the honor to return his humble acknowledgments to Your Royal Highness for Your gracious condescension in permitting him to see the letter of Count Gortals, & in directing the necessary attention to the concluding passage of the letter.

Lord Wellesley will not fail to observe Your Royal Highness's commands on this point, & will have the honor of submitting submitting his humble opinion on the Count Gortchov's request, as soon as he may be able to attend Your Royal Highness.

He takes the liberty of soliciting Your Royal Highness's particular notice
to the papers contained in this Box,
which afford the most satisfactory & interesting intelligence respecting the present state of Russia.