

H. R. W. to Spencer Perceval

Apr. 4 1811

17862

The Prince Regent returns
the enclosed paper signed to Mr Perceval with his thanks for the delicate manner in which he laid it before him for his signature and which from similar feelings and motives of delicacy, he has not delay'd one single moment in affixing his name to it

Carlton House

Thursday 4 o'clock P M

April 4th 1811

The Prince of Wales
 the enclosed paper signed by the
 with his hands for the above reasons which he has not before signed for and it is from similar papers and of delivery he has not delayed to present in offering his name to

Richard Jones
 Esq. Clerk to Mr.
 Charles J. W. 11