

8 June 1811
Mr Percival

Debate on reappointment of H. R. H. of York

18116

Done

Friday Morning

1/4 p. 1. - 6. June

Mr Percival presents his humble duty to Your Royal Highness, and as the Lord Chamberlain was so obliging to charge himself with acquainting your Royal Highness with the earliest information of the Result of the Debate on Lord Mulgrave's Motion, Mr Percival cannot deny himself the satisfaction of offering to your Royal Highness his humble congratulations upon the successful manner in which the peace of the House of Commons has been achieved upon the propriety of the reappointment of H. R. H. of York to be commander in chief His Royal Highness The Duke of York
