Seville Oranges

18123

Lady 8th June
1841

Sir

I am sorry to say that I am disappointed of the Seville oranges from Ayamonte & by the report from thence, I have some doubt if my commission to Lisbon will be successful.

From Ayamonte, they write that the Seville oranges at this season are all so ripe on the trees that there wd be no chance, with the most careful packing, of their not being spoilt in a few days.

Capt. Giddis will write to you if the oranges are sent from Lisbon —
