HORSE-GUARDS,

10th June, 1811.

THE Commander in Chief has received His Royal Highness the Prince Regent's Commands, to signify in the strongest terms, his entire Approbation of the general appearance of the Troops which were this Morning reviewed on Wimbledon Common; and in a most particular manner, His Royal Highness has been pleased to express the gratification He derived from so numerous and respectable an Assemblage of the Volunteer Force of the Metropolis and its Vicinity. The Prince Regent desires the Commanding Officers of the several Corps of Yeomanry and Volunteers will receive his Acknowledgements, and that they will convey to their Officers and Men, His Royal Highness's Thanks for the Zeal and Perseverance with which they continue to devote themselves to those Military Pursuits, in which they first engaged at a period of no common emergency, with a warmth of Personal Affection to our Sovereign, and of Devotion to the true constitutional Interests of the Country, which has baffled every Attempt to interrupt our internal Peace and Prosperity, whilst under the Blessing of Providence, the extraordinary Valour and Heroic Services of His Majesty's Fleets and Armies, have enabled us successfully to meet our implacable Enemy in every Quarter of the Globe, and to rescue our allies from His Tyranny and Oppression.

By Command of

His Royal Highness

The Commander in Chief,

HARRY CALVERT,
