

12 June 1871

Judge Advocate Genl

(C. Kammers Suttow)

for an audience

18133

London
12 June 1871

My dear Sir

If you have not yet applied to H: G: H: to be graciously pleased to give me an audience tomorrow, I should be extremely obliged to you to ask for Friday instead of tomorrow, as I have just now a heap of business upon me, which added to Sir Francis Bantlett's motion about Captain Jervis's death in the Army tomorrow, would make it most have consented to me to postpone my audience for one day -

May apologise for this trouble and believe me

I am

Y^r respectfully

C. Harrison Seton
