

Audience for Mr.
Pole previous to his
going to Ireland
after accepting the Office of Chancellor of the Irish Exchequer

Exec.

Mr Percival
June 24. 1811

18157

Mr Percival presents his humble duty to your Royal Highness, and begs to acquaint your Royal Highness that Mr Pole, who will ^{the day or tomorrow} have his writ moved, on account of his accepting the office of Chancellor of the Exchequer of Ireland, will be very anxious to have leave for Ireland as soon as he possibly can - and if your Royal Highness should be graciously pleased to honor him with an audience before he leaves England, he would be glad that some leave His Royal Highness
The Prince Regent

This morning or tomorrow should be appointed for that purpose

Draft

June 24 1911

