Lady Sidmouth's remains conveyed

18164

Dear Sir

As the little incident at of which the melted silver to His Royal Highness has since, has occasioned a good deal of disturbance to Lord Sidmouth in his present affliction - I wish you would put it early under His R. H.'s notice, as I am sure his good nature will be expansive to relieve Lord Sidmouth from the anxiety which a state of doubt as to what is to happen to Lady Sidmouth's remains keep him on - I feel this to be highly necessary

Even if Mr. R. Stephens should be set off to London this morning before your receipt of the letter, unless you feel they are to be, I could wish you to send my message with the Prop & this Royal Warrant as London, that I may be able to give some indication to the earliest letter of Mr. R. Stephens I am, Sir,

Yours
T. R.
