Sr,

Levon Street
July 20 1811

In my return from the House of Commons last night I was acquainted with your letter in reply to a letter, which I had addressed to Mr.

Perceval -

In consequence of the command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, which you signify to me, I enclose [Ed. H. Nelson on the 3]

learned the Dictation of John Lubbock and not hesitatingly to recommend his case to His Royal Highness; not positive conclusion —

Sr, Sr,

your obedient servant

W^m

John Lubbock
