

A. L. to Lord North

June 11 1774

1838

Printed House I 190
Lord North, After so much delay in the Committee on the Quebec Bill, I had thought the Opposers to it would not have been so absurd as to have debated again on the Report; but I cannot think on the third reading that they can possibly give farther trouble.

50 p. 10 A. M.

Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, written in cursive script. The text is mirrored across the page, suggesting it was written on a sheet of paper that was folded or placed over another page. The handwriting is dense and difficult to decipher.

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or a date, located in the lower right quadrant of the page. The text is mirrored and appears to be written in a similar cursive style to the main body of text.
