Lewis Goldsmith

18504

Mr Lewis Goldsmith presents his respectful Compts to General Turner & is very much obliged to him for the Notes which he received yesterday, but as H. R. H. is just arrived Moz. will feel himself particularly obliged to General Turner to ascertain from H. R. H. if his different Publications have been received.

If General Turner has not yet read Moz.'s Secret History of the Cabinet of Bonaparte, he will be happy to send him a copy of the Sixth Edition.
