

W. Yorke

Sept. 20. 1811.

18584

Adm. Sept. 20th
1811

Mr Yorke has the Honor most humbly to acquaint Your Royal Highness, that having in obedience to G.M.'s Commands, (communicated thro' Colonel Maffison,) again seen Mr R. Thornton; & after restating to him a full description of the office of Member of the Admiralty, offered it to him finally for his acceptance or rejection; Mr R. Thornton has this day thought proper to decide on the former alter-native; & the usual warrant has been directed to be made out for his appointment, accordingly.

Mr Yorke humbly presumes to (Entertain

Entertain a Hope, that the Pretensions of Mr Price to favour the unidentifiable in this occasion, may entitle him to the gracious Recollection of your Royal Highness at some future opportunity.