Count Munster

18585

Count Munster most humbly communi-cates to your Royal Highness an abstract of a letter from Colonel Greifenau, which he received yesterday. He intends, with your Royal Highness's permission, to send it to the Marquess Wellesley.

Count Munster has also received a most minute, and satisfactory, account of the present state of the Russian Army.

A messenger from Hannovers is arrived at Harwich, and is likely to reach London tomorrow.

Clarges Street 20 September 1811.
