Monday the 26

Sir

I have the honor of enclosing ^{five} Paper of Observations on some points connected with the present unsatisfactory State of Ireland - in presenting I submit them to the consideration of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent - I shall rely on your goodness to secure me from any suspicion of being influenced by any motive that could in the slightest degree be offensive to His Royal Highness, or inconsistent with that Highness's respect so justly his due - In other respects I have only to add that, as my Opinions are totally uninfluenced by any bias of Party or Personal Hostility or Partiality I can have no reason to withhold any Fact or Opinion which I may have stated from those who may appear to be affected by them - if it should be thought desirable to ascertain the correctness of the Facts or of the Inferences drawn from them - I have the honor to be Sir, your Obedt^h Servant

Edw Col MeMahon
