Aspley House 27th Sept 1811

Friday 7th 5 P.M.

Lord Wellesley has the honor to submit to Your Royal Highness the dispatches received by Lord William Bentinck, whom Lord Wellesley has seen, since the date of his former note of this day.

Lord Wellesley deems it an act of Duty to submit to Your Royal Highness his humble opinion, that Lord William Bentinck has acted with great judgment, temper, & resolution, and

and that His Lordship has pursued the true spirit of Your Royal Highness's commands, with honor to the national character, & to Your Royal Highness, & with a prospect of advantage to the public service, in bringing the affairs of Sicily to a short & plain issue.
