Stratford
Sept 29. 1844.

My Dear Sir

To many objections have been received by me respecting the living of Little Haling by, vacated by the death of Doctor Kaine & in the gift of the Governors of the Charter House, that I suppose it must be a very good thing.
In that case there may be some individuals whose aims at it the Prince may be desires to support. The Duke of Kent wrote to me immediately on the vacancy, requesting of me for a doctor's name.

My answer was that I should be happy to do his Royal Highness's wishes, under the reservation of the Prince's leaving no person to protect on the occasion, for that I must always feel my self bound to my own when the Prince is absent. Pray learn for me the Prince's wishes on this point, as likewise on the Mastership about which I have long felt.

I have the honor, by your Sir, to remain

Your faithful servant
