

As to the security of the British Army in Ireland in case of the French landing there

8 Oct 1811

Lord Liverpool

18663

Life House
Oct 8 1811

Lord Liverpool presents his humble Duties to your Royal Highness, and having been desired by your Royal Highness's confidential servants, to make the necessary enquiries respecting the security of the British Army in Ireland in the event of a French force being landed in that Island he has the honour of submitting to your Royal Highness a Memorandum containing the result of these enquiries

