

J. Nash to R. Gen. Turner

Oct. 11 1811

Dear Sir 18688

I am quite surprized that I have not heard a word from the Treasury nor have I had Glenbowie - did the letter of Mr Wharton which I sent you by post arrive safe - and will you have the goodness to inform me how you conceive the business stands - Mr Deane Mr Morgan is my confidential manager & will transmit me any letter you shall have the goodness to entrust him with -

I have the honor to be

Dear Sir

Blowelade } Your most obliged
Oct. 11 1811 } & faithful Servant

J. Nash

tempus fugit

11 Oct

M<sup>r</sup> Na

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text in cursive script, possibly a list or account, covering the majority of the page.]