Young's
10th. 1841.

My Dear Sir

Excuse my inattention re-pecting Dr. Hendrick's letter. People had come in to get letters packed while I was making up the Packet to you; & then I was hur-ried. As it happened it was of no consequence.
In consequence of your letter, I have found that I bound the letter of Dr. Hendrick's which I meant to keep, retaining by mistake another that only alluded to it. The one

Ld. Kaira to Col. Ketchum

18699

I want to send you a lamentation on the dangers of Ireland, & an expression of his hope that in an interview which was to take place for the announcement of his daughter's marriage, he should have the opportunity of detailing his sentiments to the Prime Minister on it. The Prime Minister shirked that opening -ly. He opened, with regard to Ireland, that Sanapante is persecuting his views here most actively. I do not speak from guess.

A person who gives me information, & it would not hurt himself for the world of the Ministers, is watching the matter closely.

You tell me that the Prime Minister thinks it is a very fit candidate for the living. Now that is in answer to a statement of mine of my having promised the V. of Kent by rote for a friend of his in case

The Prince did not countenance any one specially. So let us know how the Prince wishes by vote to go for this & the other appointments.

Who is to get the 5 th Regiments? I speak with reference to the Cottons, who have got but one (the Westford line) of the militia regiments. It is quite heart-breaking to hear so.

Adieu. Faithfully yours
Charles de Mevius
