My dear Macmahon,

From the tenor of your letter, I am quite satisfied Plymouth had better remain as intended viz - that B. should represent it - if the P. was to order otherwise, he would I am certain manifest ill humours which would make our Master wish both of us, & Plymouth too, at the Devil.

Let me know therefore if any thing has been announced to B. if not, all shall stand as intended, & I will invite him down to me to explain circumstances he does not seem to understand - as for myself, and I know ye will believe me sincere, that I care not a fig whether I am in Parliament or or not - but, if matters slide on smoothly, Government will take ^{of} me I have very little doubt.

Not having said a word of your health, I am sanguine in my hopes your trip to Ramsgate, is not on that account - so God bless you says,
Your sincere friend,
Wm. Byrd Smith,

Don - Puzos - Sawistock.
