

T. Tyrnwhitt to Col. Hekeahou

Oct. 17 1811

18739

My dear Ma,

From a communication from Yarmouth it is quite clear not a word has been said by any one to B. respecting Plymouth - nor is it now necessary, there should be -

If I had been commanded, I should have obeyed - as it now is, I am certain it is for the harmony of all, that I should give it up, which I do with joy - I shall lend every assistance to B. in my power.

Yours ever affectionate Friend,
Thos. Tyrnwhitt.

Don Miguel. October. 17.
1811.
