

T. Tyrwhitt to Col. Kebleton,

Oct. 20 1811

18748

My Dear Mac,

I enclose another letter, and I trust the last from my worthy correspondent.

It is now settled B. comes in here - he is sure of his Election, and without expense - not a word has, or will be said to the P. upon the subject - Yarmouth thinks B. would have shown very ill humour, & is quite happy, the thing is so arranged that Harmony will be the order of the day -

Between you & J. B. is acting a silly part - He, as the Duke of C. writes me word, is wishing to go to Ireland to see his Estates

The Duke says. The D. will not give him leave -
I will bore ye no longer
but in all cases believe me
Yours most sincerely
Thos. Tyrwhitt.
