

On the Election of Claudius Stephen Hunter
Lord Mayor

and recommending the usual signification to be made of H. R. M. approbation

28 Oct 1811
Lord Chancellor

18786

The Lord Chancellor, offering his most humble Duty to your Royal Highness The Prince Regent, takes Leave, in the usual Manner, to represent that the Corporation of London have elected Claudius Stephen Hunter Esq; Alderman, & Merchant Taylor, to be Lord Mayor of London for the ensuing Year, and propose to present him to the Lord Chancellor, according to ancient Custom, for the Approbation of that Office by Your Royal <sup>Highness</sup> acting in the Name, and ~~on the behalf~~ on the behalf of his Majesty. As this Gentleman is an extremely respectable Magistrate, the Lord Chancellor humbly presumes to request your Royal Highness's authority for expressing that Approbation, according to the same antient Custom, not being aware of any Cause for withholding it

Bedford Square

28th October 1811.