Sir

1711

I had the honor to take up a present of His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales some, but fully impressed with the highest sense of His Royal Highness's kind intentions in condescending to become Sponsor to my Infant. May I trouble you, Sir, to do me the favor of informing His Royal Highness of Lady Innes's wife became much worse took place yesterday of a fine Boy. —

The Christening I shall of course partake with some of the Honour of being his Royal Highness's (son-in-law) to Innes — And remain Sir with my apology for this trouble — most obedtly, and affectionately,
Your humble Servant
John Fleming Innes
