

H. Adams to H. Gen. Turner
Nov 21 1811

18862

My Dear Sir

There was a ground of Subscription - distinctly for the Building Lanark's School & and one personal for the relief of his family.

I will in the course of this day obtain the amount applicable to each which I subscribed by the Prince's Command & send or take them to you.

Yours most truly

H. Adams

Bloomby 19: Nov 21st 1811

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a rectangular piece of paper, possibly a letter or document fragment, showing several lines of text.]