

Charles Fox Caspary to Col. Beckwith

18962

Although 18 Dec 1811

My dear Sir

As I find that the middle of next month will be the time most convenient to the greatest number of my distant friends to attend at ~~Woburn~~ I will thank you to have the writ for the seat you have vacated moved for as soon as possible after the summer meeting of Parliament.

I beg leave to observe that the late act having made it illegible to employ agents or bankers in any arrangements concerning elections I shall be under the necessity of receiving from you alone the sum necessary to defray the expenses of your next return.

I will have the honor of waiting on you for that purpose about the time of the meeting of Parliament.

Believe me,

My dear Sir,

most faithfully yours

Charles Fox
