Lord Wellesley has the honor to submit to Your Royal Highness a letter received from Colonel MacLeod, proposing to entertain Lucien Bonaparte at Cheltenham.
It is unnecessary to state to Your Royal Highness the impropriety of this request, & the impossibility of granting it without great public inconvenience.

With these sentiments Lord Wellesley hopes.

hopes that Your Royal Highness will be graciously pleased to approve the enclosed draft of an answer to Colonel Mordaunt.

It is humbly requested that Your Royal Highness will direct this box to be returned as soon as possible, in order that the answer may be despatched to day.
