My dear Sir,

The Proprietors of Covent Garden Theatre think it their duty to acquaint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales with their intention to present a petition to The King on the subject of ~~the~~^{the} third patent. -- If I had been so lucky as to have found you within, I should have told you that we rely on your goodness for laying before The Prince a copy of the Petition, which I have the honour of leaving with this note, and which we humbly hope will meet with His Royal Highness's approbation and gracious countenance.

I am, my dear Sir,
(with fingers colder than ices)
Your obliged servant,

J. Kemble;

Tuesday Morning;
