My Dear M<sup>r</sup>

I have this minute received your letter - Be assured I will do every thing in my power to execute the contents of it - With the Viscount I have but little hopes He loves me very well personally but He detests my politics - He is I fear quite under the influence of Abercorn next to the Marquis no person has so much power over him as Hemble. Would Sir George permit me to mention the business to him <sup>(if my dear)</sup> I shall not do so till I hear from you - I will see the Bishop as soon as possible if he thinks He can <sup>be</sup> ~~be~~ consistent with the obligations he is under in another quarter I don't despair of getting him tho' I confess my expectations are not sanguine -

I am my dear friend
