

Ld. Lauderdale to the Hon. Mr. Pitt

19027-8

Ld. Lauderdale presents Comptrol. Ld. Pitt - he sends him a Copy of the Comptrol. in 10th March 1789 - & also a Copy of a Comptrol. for opening the Office in the usual form

Ld. Pitt will at once perceive that the former plagues the King or Regent who signs of approbation of the measure that have been pursued in opening Parliament. - Indeed it has been argued both by Chancellor & Perceval that his Majesty's approbation of the measures of 1789 were the informed from the Commission of the 10th of March

- This proceeding must appear the more extraordinary from the well known that W. Perceval has recently told the Prince, <sup>the following</sup> in a paragraph of his letter that he knows he disapproves what he is now proposing he should sanction

"Mr. Perceval humbly trusts that whatever doubt your Royal Highness may entertain with respect to the Constitutional propriety of the measures
