

S. Percival to H.R.H.

Feb. 28 1812

A.A. No. 21

19327_2

Mr Percival presents his humble duty to your Royal Highness, & humbly acquaints your Royal Highness that Mr Thos. Tenter brought forward his <sup>for a Court</sup> Motion for the State of the Nation yesterday Evening - He entered much at large into almost all the topics that were connected with the public weal of the last five years; - He was followed by Mr Telf who recorded his Motion and the debate proceeded in the following order

For the Motion

against it

Mr Robinson

Her Royal Highness
The Duchess of Devon

For the Motion

against a

Mr Lane

Mr Herbert

Mr Whilbred

Mr Monaghan

Mr Tierney

Lord Castlereagh

Mr Cannon

Mr Bouverie

Mr. H. S. Taylor

1812

The House divided between two & three of each For the motion 136
Against it 209 -

Mr Whilbred gave Lord Castlereagh and Mr Bouverie an opportunity of setting right the mistaken report which had been circulated upon the subject of the surrender of the Proca Sweden as a treason.

19328

on which it was supposed Government had no feeling and were to have no influence hereafter, & explained the true state in which that question ~~is~~ has been explained to stand -

Lord Castlereagh with great zeal Royal Highness to mention, at this of each, according to your Royal Highness's appointment, and will state to your Royal Highness that that explanation was quite satisfactory according to his view of it -

Done

Feb. 28. 1812

28. March 1872

Mr Percival

H of Camons

71 NOV 07