

D. of Grafton

Dec. 10th 1765 <sup>m</sup>/<sub>20</sub> past 11. A.M.

Reference

195

The Duke of Grafton begs leave to submit the Draft enclosed to Mess<sup>rs</sup> Bruhl in answer to one he received yesterday from that Gentleman together with a memoire, in order that his Majesty's Pleasure should be known upon it.

The Duke of Grafton's View in sending it to day is in order that Count d'Armening should not think that it is to be negotiated here so that he may know the contrary by tonight's mail.

Whitehall Dec 10th 1765
<sup>m</sup>/<sub>20</sub> past Eleven A.M.

