My dear Sir.

Will you have the goodness to make my most grateful & dutiful acknowledgments to the Prince Regent for his great goodness to me in the promotion of my brother to the See of Chester - I am writing in Court, during an argument, I am not able to withdraw from Court from a ^{single} second but will take the liberty of addressing my thanks immediately to his Royal Highness the moment I am able to escape from Court. I have the honour to be with great respect & regard My dear Sir Your obliged & obed^t humble Serv^t Ellenborough
