My Dear Sir

My friend S. Maclean, who has had the most frequent Trips to Town, & who is a member of the Committee of a Sub-Committee of the Regent's Board, with gratitude of you who served the country, with a valuable intention of the Service. I am sorry, cannot attend them - but I am sorry the Society with the Secretary, & I myself have advised at of the Council.

I should be an excellent fellow-I say it has some knowledge of you, but please do not not say - I am sorry you are not in the house. He is working like a Pest-in the Black - I think has been out - I am at present then I am busy with other colleagues.

Yours truly
J. J. Maclean
