Dear Sir,

Dr. Dudley spoke to me a short time since respecting Mr. Hunt. On Tuesday. I shall dine in company with that Gentleman, and as Dr. D. is gone out of town for some days, I should be glad to have a few minutes previous conversation with you on the subject.

I will wait on you whenever it may suit your convenience to appoint.

Grosvenor St.
Saturday
July 18. 1812.

I am, Dear Sir,
most faithfully Yours,
William Phillips.

The/ Dr. Humble.
