

The March<sup>s</sup> of Salisbury
19. July 1812.

19904

The March<sup>s</sup> of Salisbury presents her Compl<sup>ts</sup> to Mr. H. Mahon is much obliged to him for the favor of his letter which she received yesterday evening. She requests him to make her most humble & grateful acknowledgements to the Prince Regent for his kind & flattering Attention he has so highly honour'd her with, by the confidential Communication he has been so gracious as to make to her, & she begs to add that His Royal Highness's great Goodness & Consideration to her upon this occasion has made a deep & truly gratifying impression upon her Mind.

Stutfield House 19th July

[Faint, illegible text in a rectangular box at the top of the page]

The table consists of approximately 10 columns and 15 rows. The content is extremely faint and mostly illegible. Some faint markings are visible, particularly in the right-hand columns, which appear to contain small, repeating symbols or characters. The overall appearance is that of a ledger or account book page that has become very faded over time.