Brompton. July 20th. 1812

My Dear Mr. Mahon.

I am very much obliged to you for your very kind Letter to me, & I do assure you I will never more think upon the Subject. but I think at the same time as I promise you I never will take the slightest notice of the person who mentioned my Votes you may in confidence mention his name to Lord Ormonde. when you see his Lordship, merely to put me a my Guard of such a friend.

Yours most truly
T. J. Falkiner
