

Ld. Bathurst to H.R.H.

A.A. No. 120

20145

Brighton Oct. 13th 1812.

Lord Bathurst most humbly submits to your Royal Highness the Copy of a Letter Lord Bathurst has received from Prince William of Orange; in answer to one which Lord Bathurst thought it his duty to address to his Serene Highness, announcing to him your Royal Highness having been pleased to appoint him an Aid de Camp to your Royal Highness.

Lord Bathurst at the same time communicates to his Serene Highness, your Royal Highness's considerate kindness towards him, in selecting that military reward, which would not be more his Serene Highness's if the advantage to be derived by his situation with Lord Wellington, in which it must be left to his wish & interest at present to remain
