My Dear Mr. Walker —

I have this day written to Lord Liverpool to renew my application for the English Service as I understand that His Royal Highness purposes a promotion of the conduct of the persons before - having in my letter alluded to my former application to Mr. Percival, & his answer which I pass to you for your perusal, I shall be most exceedingly obliged by your returning it to me if it be still in your possession, but if not may I flatter myself the contents in are sufficiently in your recollection that should the subject be conveyed in your presence you will speak for his having been friendly to my suit. — The Duke of Richmond has urged my claims in the strongest manner to Lord Liverpool, and it is his grace's opinion that the no Irish Peer may be included in the intended Promotion by Law is so singular as being the only

House of Lords that an exception in my favour could give no offence nor excite any disappointments I feel convinced I may rely on your good offices —

Believe me

My Dear Mr. Thomsou
very faithfully
yours
