Sowing the Friday.

My Dear Friend

Found it impossi-ble to call upon you after I had seen L. L. - I will call tomorrow Mr. S., & indeed we shall meet at dinner.

L. L. said that the including one friend in the present batch was impossible; he certainly feels much the objection of Birt. I he thinks that the deviation in favour of some marked brilliant ser-vice ought not to form a Precedent. He allows Keppel's general merit, but he does not think that good conduct in the W.

Indies is such brilliant service as w. authorize a deviation.

I will explain more fully when we meet. He

w. be glad to be kind to Keppel having a very good opinion of him, & perhaps between us something satis-factory might be done on a future occasion.

Till we meet, Ad^{rs} Arbuthnot
