

On Sir F. Burdett's
Motion for a Regency
Bill

Lord Castlereagh

20445

St James's Square

Tuesday 11 P. M.

Lord Castlereagh has the honor to acquaint your Royal Highness that Sir F. Burdett's Motion for a Regency Bill has been rejected by a Majority of 166 - the Numbers were for the Leave to introduce the Bill 73 - Against it 230

The Debate was strictly confined to the Question, and perfectly temperate on both Sides - There was not only no allusion to the Princess of Wales, but an tone obvious against the introduction of that topic into the debate. Sir F. Bouverie took pains to profess respect for your Royal Highness, and determination to advent to any subject that could give harm - Mr C. Johnston was present but showed no inclination to say a word.

Lord Wellesley & Mr Carnegy
Friends divided with the Majority.

Sir G. Webster with the Minority
