

J. Byrley
10. March 1813

20486

Ambury
Worcestershire

10. Mar 1813

My dear Sir

Though the Murmurations of Parties whom I need not name & of the Prince Regent has most unjustly had the popular feeling excited against H. P. in an uncommon degree & as you know I have been long master of the subject have undertaken as far as in me lies to turn the scale, preserving that delicacy which true policy has all along dictated towards the Mother of our picture Queen. My work is in the Press & I should not have troubled you at this moment on the subject did my residence at present so far from your present my searching for an account of the sum which Mr. A. paid some time ago for the debts of the Prince & to the addition that Mr. A. made to the income of the Prince

You will therefore pardon my requesting the favor of such information as early as possible for this is only wanting to complete my proofs of the Prince's liberality and munificence, & that I shall be able to show you a new proof of that kind but I attachments which bind me to the glory of His Royal Highness shows to all the world the motives and proposed in the disgusting disclosures recently made

I have the honor to be

my Dear Sir

Yours most faithful & grateful Slave
W. Pitt