J. Beddingfield

31 March 1813

Took the Liberty on the 23^d Mo to transmit in under cover to you a humble Petition to His Royal Highness.

I shall be thankful for any answer. If there should be a disposition to confer any remuneration, on a warrant of the Service alluded to, the Consent of the Crown to an application to the House of Commons, would be the favor I should ask, if any objection exists to that measure perhaps relief might be afforded from the Courts

At the Office of the Secretary of admirably.

I beg leave to enclose an extract from a recent Publication with an explanatory note from the I perceive from a letter in my possession from Colonel Bloomfield, that your Royal Highness is aware that the transaction happened in the manner
I have described it.

I have the Honour to be Your most Obedient & Humble Servant
