Ld. Hoiva bth R. A. Request, March 31st 1813.

Si

The precious interest which Your Royal Highness has testified on the occasion of this strange attack upon me from Mr. Whithead for overpassing any dis-satisfaction which so unworthy a proce-dure has excited. Indeed, the measure of that dis-satisfaction is so trifling that I have no merit to expect for letting it be outweighed by your generous feelings on I re the subject. I know not well wherefore, but I cannot find in my heart to be aggrieved by this occurrence. Perhaps the reason is, that the conduct befits the Porter-brewer, & that I am conscious I ought not to be angry with what is only the nature of the animal.

With the truest Devotion
