My dear Sir -

I write a few days after your kind suggestion to Mr. Robertson, & from not having had any answer to my letter I am apprehensive that I might have been guilty, unintentionally of some inadvertency in addressing Him, in substance to the nearly following effect - Expressing how acceptable it would be to me to be held by Him in favourable consideration & that I was confident His Royal Highness The Prince Regent would be graciously pleased to assist in any situation he may be pleased to appoint me to, that it would not be otherwise than acceptable in His Eyes - & how much I should feel myself personally obliged & indebted to Him for His Favor - I earnestly wish my mind to be set at rest as to my having nothing in answer of my letter & anticipate unfavorable to apprise You of it that I may propel by your Interest according to your sense I promise to offer you no one will have more weight with Mr. Arbutnot than yourself, to whom I should be proud to an obsequy being with the greatest respect & esteem Dr.

In your most sincere Friend Thomas Best
